This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

The Legislature, by a provision of Law passed at their session of 1849, authorized the publication of a Catalogue of the State Library. All the officers connected with it, have been diligently engaged since May last, in carrying out and completing the required volume, and the result is now presented.

While aware of its imperfections, many of which may be hereafter corrected in future Annual Reports, the Trustees still feel a justifiable degree of pride in presenting this evidence of the regard of the State, through its constituted authorities, for the promotion of Science and Literature.

The volumes which have been received from the valuable library of the late Chancellor, are designated by the letters C. L. Those obtained by purchase from Mr. Warden, have annexed to them the letters W. C.

It would not comport with their feelings, were the Trustees to omit an expression of their obligations, and through them of the State, to M. VATTEMARE, for his unceasing, most devoted and most successful labors to promote the cause of STATE AND INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGES, and by means of which the Library has been so much enriched. His full reward is yet to come, and in its maturity, will only reach his descendants. Here, in the bosom of a mighty empire, and throughout the continent, his name will ever be inscribed as one of the earliest and ablest friends and promoters of the diffusion of knowledge.

The grave has closed over two others of the truest and most valued friends of the NEW-YORK STATE LIBRARY, one of whom, at least, the Trustees hoped to present with a copy of this Catalogue, as a testimony of their heartfelt respect and esteem. But the death of O. Rich* deprives them of the desired pleasure. It cannot, however, be otherwise than just, to express their gratitude (and indeed, that of their predecessors for many years previous to their entrance on office,) to the kind-hearted and learned American, who, in a foreign land, was one of the most uniform friends and supporters of the Library. When Irving and Prescott and Ticknor acknowledge the assistance received in the prosecution of their literary labors, from Mr. Rich, the Trustees may at least be permitted to add their remembrance of his many disinterested services.

Jonathan Goodhue, the pride and model of the American Merchant, was for nearly a quarter of a century the medium of intercourse between foreign correspondents and the Trustees. He ever refused to receive any compensation for his labors—often, doubtless, tedious, and certainly interfering with his accustomed employments. But they were always volunteered, to use his own words, "freely and cheerfully, for the promotion of Science and Learning." His memory is united with the annals of the institution, and the present tribute (all that possibly he might have consented to receive,) is now added to the many which "length of days and an unspotted life" have accumulated on his tomb.

It is not among the smallest of the gratifications incident to their arduous and unceasing duties, that the Trustees are enabled to continue their mercantile connexions with the houses of Goodhue & Co., and of O. Rich, in the persons of their sons and partners.

March, 1850.

CATALOGUE

MISCELLANEOUS WORKS

IN THE

NEW-YORK STATE LIBRARY.

NOTE.—The Works in the Miscellaneous Department of the Library, when not anonymous, are lettered with the Author's name, and a brief title of the Work. In the subsequent Catalogue they are twice entered : once, Alphabetically, by the name of the author, and again, in a Systematic Classification, according to the nature of the subjects of which they treat. Each work is arranged on the shelves, Alphabetically, under the initial letter of the surname of its author. Anonymous works are lettered agreeably to their subjects, and placed, in like manner, under their initial letters. The octavos and smaller sized volumes are put on one set of shelves; the Quartos and Folios, separately, on other sets of shelves. There are, however, some few exceptions to this order. Periodical Works, such as Magazines, Registers and Reviews, Scientific Journals and Publications of Learned Societies, together with the Dictionaries, Encyclopædias and Gazetteers, and other similar Works of repeated reference, are withdrawn from the general arrangement and placed by themselves, for more convenient consultation. The Warden Collection, added to the Library in 1846, it was thought advisable to keep, likewise, by itself. The Works of this Collection had been numbered by Mr. Warden, in his published Catalogue, as they followed in his Classification. These numbers have been cancelled, the works new numbered in their order in this Catalogue, and indicated by the capital letters W. C. (with the number.) The Maps, Charts, and Atlases have been treated in a somewhat similar manner, and arranged in the Catalogue among the other Maps and Charts.

12th March. Charter or Grant from King Charles the Second, to his Brother James, Duke of York and Albany, of sundry lands in America.

(This Ancient Patent is beautifully engrossed, and in quite a good state of preservation, considering that it is nearly 200 years old. The territory it conveyed is described thus: "All that part of the main land of New England, beginning at St. Croix, next adjoining to New Scotland in America, and extending from thence along the sea coast to Pemequid, and so up the River thereof to the furthest head of the same as it tendeth northwardly, and extending from thence to the River Kinebequen, and so upwards by the shortest course of the River of Canada northwardly; and also all that Island or Islands commonly called by the name of Meitowacks, or Long Island, situate and being towards the west of Cape Cod and the Narrow Highgansetts, abutting upon the mainland, between the two Rivers called or known by the several names of Connecticut, and Hudson's River, and all the land from the West Side of Connecticut River to the East Side of Delaware Bay, and also all those Islands known by the names of Martha's Vineyard or Nantucks, otherwise Nantucket."

Further reference is made to this grant in London Doc. xvi. 253, where Lord Cornbury quotes it as authority to subvert

RULES AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

STATE LIBRARY.

LAWS OF THE STATE.

Revised Statutes, Vol. I., Part I., Chap. IX., Title 8, Sect. 6. It shall be the duty of the Trustees to provide, in their regulations, that any member of the Senate or Assembly, during the session of the Legislature, or during the sitting of the Court for the Correction of Errors, or of the Senate only, shall be permitted, under proper restrictions, forfeitures and penalties, to take to his boarding-house, or private room, any book belonging to the Library, except such books as the Trustees shall determine are necessary always to be kept in the Library, as books of reference; but no member of the Legislature shall be permitted to take or detain from the Library, more than two volumes at any one time.

Ibid. Sect. 7. Before the President of the Senate, or the Speaker of the Assembly, shall grant to any member a certificate of the time of his attendance, he shall be satisfied that such member has returned all books taken out of the Library by him, and has settled all accounts for fines, for injuring such books, or otherwise.

Act of May, 1844, Sect. 5. The State Library shall be kept open every day in the year, Sundays excepted, during such hours in each day as the Trustees of the said Library may direct.

Ibid. Sect. 6. The Librarian shall be constant in his personal attendance upon the Library during ths hours it shall be directed to be kept open, and shall perform such other duties as may be imposed by law, or by the rules and regulations which may be prescribed by the said Trustees. He may appoint some person of a suitable age, and having proper qualifications for the situation, as his assistant; but such appointment shall be submitted to the Trustees for their approval, and shall not be effectual without such approval.

1. During the session of the Legislature, or of the Senate only, and during the sitting of the Court of Errors, or of the Court of Chancery, or of the Supreme Court, in the Capitol, the Library shall be open from the hour of nine in the morning until the hour of nine in the evening, and on all other days, (Sundays excepted,) from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. On Christmas, New-Year, and other holidays, the rooms shall be kept open only one hour in the morning, from 9 to 10 A. M.

II. It shall be the duty of the Librarian and Assistant Librarian to keep the Library rooms clean, neat, and in good order; carefully to preserve the books, maps, charts, engravings, medals and furniture; and to suffer none of them to be taken out of the Library, unless as expressly authorised by these regulations. The Librarian will be held accountable for the full value of every book that is missing, and for every injury which a book, map or chart may receive while he is in office, except such as may be sustained by ordinary use; and he will be relieved from such accountability, only by showing that some other person is responsible for such book or injury, without any fault of the Librarian. Whenever the Library is open, he shall attend the same, and shall on no account suffer any volume to be taken from the Library room, without first entering in a book to be provided by him, the name of the person taking the same, and the title of the volume.

For every instance of a violation of this rule, the Librarian shall forfeit one dollar, to be deducted from his salary.

III. It shall be the duty of the Librarian to preserve order, and to prevent smoking in the Library rooms. He shall also exclude, if necessary, any disorderly person. No talking, that the Librarian shall deem incompatible with quiet reading or copying, shall be permitted. Visitors are also requested not to seat themselves near the book shelves.

IV. Any member of the Legislature, during its session, or during the sitting of the Court of Errors, or of the Senate only, may take to his boarding-house or private room, any book belonging to the Library, other than those hereinafter particularly specified, under the restrictions, penalties and forfeitures following:

1. No book can be taken out, until its delivery has been entered by the Librarian.

2. Not more than two books can be taken out at a time.

3. No book can be detained more than one week; but the borrower may, after returning it, again take it out, unless some other member of the Legislature has in the mean time made application for it; in which case, such applicant shall have the preference in the use of the said book; and when there are several applicants, the preference shall be according to the priority of their applications.

4. A fine of twenty cents shall be imposed for every day's detention beyond the week above specified, and collected by the Librarian.

5. If a book is lost or destroyed, or so much injured that the whole of it cannot be read, the borrower shall be charged the full value of the volume, and one-third of such value in addition; and if it belongs to a set of volumes, he shall be charged the value of the whole set, and one-third of such value in addition.

6. For any injury to a book subsequent to its being taken out, and previous to its return, a fine shall be imposed on the borrower, equal to its injury, to be determined by the Librarian, with the addition of thirty-three per cent.

7. Whenever a fine shall be imposed, or any charge made against the borrower of a book, he shall be immediately notified thereof by the Librarian. An appeal from such fine or charge may be made to the Library Committee.

V. No map, chart, print, engraving, or medal, or books of maps, charts, prints, or engravings, can be takan out of the Library room, nor the following books: Lexicons, Dictionaries, or Cyclopedias; Niles' Register, or any files of Newspapers; Wilson's Ornithology; Audubon's Birds of America, or his American Ornithological Biography; the Album Cosmopolite; Wilkes' Exploring Expedition, the 4to edition; Denton's History of New-York, 1670; Elliot's Indian Bible, 1680; Audubon's Quadrupeds, together with such other works as may from time to time be specified, according to a signed list, to be left with the Librarian; except that, during the session of the Legislature, or of the Court for the Correction of Errors, any member thereof may take to any room in the Capitol, any Lexicon, Dictionary, or Cyclopedia, Niles' Register, or any files of Newspapers, to be returned on the same day.

VI. The Trustees hereby declare, agreeably to the provisions of the Revised Statutes, that the Law Library, in its most extensive sense, comprehends such books of reference, as should always be kept in it; but during the session of the Legislature, of the Senate, of the Court for the Correction of Errors, and of any Court held in the Capitol, law books may be taken from the Library to any room in the Capitol, to be returned on the same day. The Librarian shall previously charge each person so taking, with the book or books; and a fine of fifty cents shall be imposed for each day's detention beyond the above time. The regulations above ordained, as to loss, injury, or damage of books, shall apply in the present case.

VII. No books belonging to the Law Library are to be taken to the Miscellaneous Library, to be read; nor are books, maps, charts, or prints, belonging to the Miscellaneous Library, to be taken to the Law Library, to be read or examined.

VIII. Three days previous to the day fixed for the adjournment of any session of the Legislature, or of any sitting of the Court for the Correction of Errors, or of the Senate, shall be fixed, the Librarian shall immediately address a note to each member of the Legislature having any book belonging to the Library, requesting the return thereof within twenty-four hours.

IX. After the expiration of the said twenty-four hours, the Librarian shall immediately make out a list of the members of each house of the Legislature, who have omitted to return any books belonging to the Library, specifying the volumes retained by each, and a list of those, upon whom any fines have been imposed, remaining unpaid, or against whom any charges for the loss of books exist, stating such fines or charges; which list shall be alphabetically arranged, according to the names of the respective members, and shall be certified to be correct. To the President of the Senate, the Librarian shall forthwith deliver the list relating to that body; and the list containing the names of the members of the Assembly, he shall forthwith deliver to the Speaker; and upon each list shall be written a copy of Sec. 7, Title 8, Chap. 9, Part I. of the Revised Statutes

X. Twenty days before the opening of any annual session of the Legislature, the Librarian shall report in writing to the Trustees the title of every book, map, chart, print, or engraving, missing from the Library, since the catalogue of the previous year was made out, or, if no such catalogue has been made, since the date of said Librarian's last Annual Report to the Trustees; together with the name or names of the persons who appear, from the entries of the Librarian, to have borrowed or detained the same, to the end that such list may be submitted to the Legislature by the Trustees.

XI. These regulations shall be conspicuously posted and hung in frames in the Library, and the other rooms of the Capitol.
